While Army released letters to show that they had informed the state about their deployment as part of a larger "data collection" exercise across the region, the latter released letters to claim it had objected to the move. Attorney General Mukul Rohatgi, whose presence was sought by the bench when Upadhyay mentioned his plea, supported the court's view. "Yes, an order has already been made. There is no reason why an

Since the court did not dismiss Upadhyay's plea by a written order, the lawyer still has the option of moving a petition.
